

Public Health Information Network for Scotland

20th Seminar: Friday 13th September 2019

Glasgow Royal Concert Hall (Strathclyde Suite)

Programme

9.00 – 9.30 Coffee & Registration

9.30 - 9.35 Welcome

Fiona Crawford, NHS Greater Glasgow & Clyde/Glasgow Centre for Population Health

9.35 - 10.35

New public health evidence and emergent concerns

Contextualising ACEs: the relationship between childhood socioeconomic status and adverse childhood experiences

David Walsh, Glasgow Centre for Population Health

Are there socioeconomic inequalities within the overall stalling of mortality improvements in Scotland?

Lynda Fenton, NHS Ayrshire & Arran

Taking away the chaos: the case for Scotland to implement the UK's first drug consumption room

Saket Priyadarshi, Glasgow Alcohol and Drug Recovery Services

10.35 - 11.00 Questions/Discussion

11.00 - 11.30 Coffee Break

11.30 - 12.30

Environment, sustainability and health

Realising the health benefits of cleaner air in Scotland

Fintan Hurley, Institute of Occupational Medicine

Effective interventions in road transport to improve public health: lessons from active travel projects and programmes

Adrian Davis, Napier University

Going large: taking a broader public health approach to food

Jill Muirie, Glasgow Centre for Population Health

12.30 - 1.00 Discussion & Summing up

1.00 pm Close & lunch

Please note: if you would like to tweet about the event, we are using: #PHINS2019